To the Parent of the Student Guest: Please read and sign the following statement.

Sterling High School is happy to host your child as a guest at our Junior/Senior Prom. Please note, though, that we take precautions to assure that all our students are well-behaved and respectful of each other and school rules and policies throughout the evening. Your child will be required to adhere to those rules and policies while attending this function. We ask your cooperation in completing this form and meeting the requested deadlines.

1. Complete the permission form (on side 2 of this document) with your child's name and your signature and phone number authorizing the school administrator to complete this form.
2. Take this form to your student's school and have his/her disciplinarian/assistant principal completes the form, sign it and stamp it with a school seal/stamp.
3. Please be sure that the Sterling student hosting your son or daughter receives the form back promptly. The Sterling student purchasing the ticket must submit it to the Vice Principal's office by March 20, 2024
4. Attach a Picture ID such as a Driver's License or Passport with a birthdate on the ID.

Thank you for your cooperation!
